Have You Heard?

by Dorothy McCain Elenius

Those of us who have to stay home this summer are envying several members of the Albany High 12 Club, who have spent the past months traveling to interesting spots on the map.

Stanley Ward and his wife, Violet, left in early July for an extended tour of southern Europe; Fred Lennox just recently returned from the West Indies, and word has been received that Sam Dows and wife, Rita, after having paid a visit to Ireland, are now on their way to Austria.

Judge Lewis Sherman, newest judge of the Berkeley-Albany Municipal Court, told Albany Rotarians at a recent meeting: "The courts must draw a fine line between a free society and the protection of individual freedom." Among those in attendance, rapidly listening, were local attorneys Bob Brilliant, Tom McIntosh and Cecil Lavars.

Another item on Judge Sherman... thanks to his complaint to the Alameda County Board of Supervisors, a little more light will be shed on justice in the Berkeley-Albany Municipal Court.

Lights in the chambers are now being cleaned and checked for candlefoot readings. If the illumination falls below county standards, changes will be made.

Charlie (Frank) Graeber called to welcome me back to Albany and asked me to remind our readers that he is still collecting "paper backs" to send to our Vietnam servicemen, as well as those in the Vet hospitals. If you call him at 526-0872 he will gladly pick up your donation.

Have noticed several restaurants that were not here when I left Albany, three years ago, and hope to try them real soon.

Did have an exceptionally good lunch at Walker's Pie Shop last week. The food was excellent and saw several old friends there. Seems to be very popular with Albanyites. Had a nice visit with old friend Bert Gogins, who gave me some much needed information about pruning trees on our new Bethel Island plot. Now, all I have to do is get "good husband Paul" on the ball.

Jean Rutherford says now is a good time for all those who have complained about property taxes to do something about them. All you have to do is be a registered voter and sign the initiative petition concerning the one percent property tax limit. Call Jean, at 524-5632 for further information.

For the first time in 30 years, the Sequoia Parlor 272, Native Daughters of the Golden West, will not take part in the Admission Day Parade. Too bad, they will be missed... they always received an award for their crack marching unit.

Understand Rotary president, Chuck Silvera is looking for some Albany Rotarians to join in a fishing party he is arranging when the District Governor comes to Albany on September 7. But they have to promise to let the Gov. catch the big ones!

Grove Campus To Continue

The controversial Grove Street campus, termed a "political football" by Carl Mack, acting chief administrator for the college, will continue to operate while a new site for a north Oakland-Berkeley college is selected and constructed—thus fulfilling the promise made by the Peralta College District Board for a fourth college in the north Oakland, Berkeley-Albany area.

At last week's meeting the Board of Trustees set up a timetable for the selection of a president for the Grove Street College, operating with only an acting administrator since Dr. Norvel Smith vacated the post to become president of the new Merritt College. Calling for a list of five candidates from a presidential candidate screening committee by November 1, the new president will be appointed for the 1972-73 term, under the board's new policy.

The presidential screening committee will be composed of community residents, students, teachers and administrators.

An "ad hoc" site selection committee, composed of Board of Trustees members, has been appointed by Board Chairman, Hal Michaels. They are Booker T. Jackson, Jr., Dr. Curtis Aller and John C. Anderson. They will also report to the Trustees on November 1.

The following appointments have been made by the chairman: Veterans' Day Commissioner Allen F. Strutz, at-large representative of Hayward, vice chairman and awards chairman; A. Lee Oder, past California State Commander of the American Legion, a commissioner who lives in Berkeley, parade coordinator; Commissioner Allan F. Wyatt, 14th District Disabled American Veterans Commander, San Leandro, transportation.

Commissioner Joseph R. Wood of Castro Valley, American Legion, co-chairman of transportation; Commissioner Raymond Miller of San Leandro, past California Adjutant of AMVETS, reviewing stand chairman; Commissioner Robert Bury of Oakland, representing veterans of World War I, reception chairman; Commissioner Robert A. Steffenauer of Pleasanton, judging director; Commissioner Richard Heckman of Dublin, secretary; Chairman Williams, distinguished guests.

Other appointments include Mrs. Heckman, representing 14th District VFW auxiliary, historian; Mary Martinez, wife of Fidel Martinez, Jr., Veterans of Foreign Wars State Commander and herself president of 14th District VFW auxiliary, resident of Oakland.

Gov. Ronald Reagan has signed a bill into law banning the modifying of car exhaust systems to make them louder than original equipment.

The measure, authored by Assemblyman Newton Russell, will go into effect 121 days after adjournment of the legislature.

The show will be held in the library, 1216 Solano Avenue on Thursday, Aug. 26, at 10 a.m. All children and their parents are invited.

Albany Site For '71 Veterans Day Parade

There's going to be a star spangled Veterans' Day Parade in Albany on Monday, Oct. 25.

Alameda County Veterans' Day Commission Chairman Jerry Williams of Albany said this is the first of the Monday Veterans' Days established by the 91st Congress.

The 17th annual parade has again been designated as one of nine Veterans' Day National Regional Ceremonial sites in the U.S. It is the only California parade so designated.

Route of the parade will be along Albany's Solano Avenue, which has modern new street lights and is currently being beautified with completion expected well ahead of the parade date.

Persons or groups interested in the parade may contact Parade Chairman Hal Eilers at 3781 Leighton St., Oakland 94611, or may call him at 655-0898.

The following appointments have been made by the chairman: Veterans' Day Commissioner Allen F. Strutz, at-large representative of Hayward, vice chairman and awards chairman; A. Lee Oder, past California State Commander of the American Legion, a commissioner who lives in Berkeley, parade coordinator; Commissioner Allan F. Wyatt, 14th District Disabled American Veterans Commander, San Leandro, transportation.

Students new to the Albany schools should register as soon as possible at the school in their attendance area. All school offices will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. starting Monday, August 30, through Friday, September 10. School offices will be closed on September 6 (Labor Day) and September 9 (Admission Day). All new students living in University Village, grades K-7, should register at Cornell School, 919 Cornell Ave. Kindergarten children must be 5 years of age on or before December 2, 1971. New students in grades 8-12 will be registered at Albany High School.

Previous school records, birth certificates, and health records should be brought for verification of age and for completion of registration forms. School law requires that all children enrolled present evidence of immunization against polio and red measles (Rubella). Parents wishing further information concerning enrollment should call the District Office—526-6441.

LTC Alexander A. Terris, USA, Sixth Army headquarters, of the Presidio in San Francisco has been appointed by the Assistant Secretary of Defense on behalf of President Richard M. Nixon to serve as Department of Defense Military Project Officer.

Three Counties Back BART Investigation

Henry Worthington, foreman of the Contra Costa County Grand Jury, said the jury will cooperate with Alameda County's Grand Jury investigation into the Bay Area Rapid Transit District operations.

Worthington released this statement following the CCC jury's regular session. Deliberations of the jury are secret, and public information is released at the jury's discretion. No other details have been released.

The Alameda County jury's auditing and finance committee began a probe into BART spending some six months ago, and the information gathered by the committee was made available to the CCC jury.

The San Francisco city attorney's office had decided that its county grand jury also has jurisdiction to investigate BART spending.

A letter to the SF grand jury noted the body "had power in addition to bonafide inquiries into public offenses and official misconduct to routinely investigate the San Francisco Rapid Transit District, with respect to the method or system of performing duties of said district, together with the records and books thereof."

The letter was in answer to a request by the SF grand jury for a jurisdiction decision.

Residents' Opinions Asked On Solano Avenue Project

"Mr. Mayor, I may be dropping a bombshell and I may be up for criticism, but I would like to state that I think we have made a mistake on the Solano Avenue... they are definitely proving to be hazards, and I think we should consider making some plans for changes now, while further work is being held up by the strike."

With these words, Councilman Lewis Howell may well have opened up a Pandora's box in Albany, bringing out in the open unspoken thoughts (and sometimes privately spoken ones) that have been festering in the minds of many local residents for quite some time.

Resolutions On Agenda

Albany City Attorney, Larry Sailer will draft several resolutions for approval by the City Council at next Monday night's meeting.

One resolution, proposed by Councilman Joe Carlevaro, will support Councilman Richard Clark's reappointment to the Bay Area Rapid Transit District's Board of Directors.

Another, offered by Councilman Lew Howell, will appoint Jim Scoggins, 902 Polk St., to the Civil Service Commission, replacing V. M. Chester, a former Howell appointee, who is resigning.

Councilman Richard Clark proposed a resolution commending Ila Mae Wilson, owner-publisher of the Albany Times, on the newspaper's 37th anniversary.

At Councilman Joe Carlevaro's suggestion, Attorney Sailer was requested to draft the necessary papers for a possible "90 day freeze" on business uses for San Pablo Avenue.

After studying the draft, the Council plans on meeting with the Planning and Zoning Commission in an "attempt to strengthen the ordinance according to the desires of the city for San Pablo Avenue," according to Carlevaro.

Register Now

Albany Story Makes National Magazine

J. Henry Kruse, Jr., member of the Albany Lions Club, is proud to announce that the July-August issue of The Lion, a magazine with a circulation of over a million, carried a picture and story of the Albany Lions Club dedication of the Albany Hill Cross.

Only once before has a photograph concerning the activities of the Albany Lions Club appeared in this magazine, according to Kruse.

Incidentally, the original picture and story appeared in the Albany Times last March and April.

Calling for a public meeting next week with Albany Chamber of Commerce, the Beautification Committee and project architects, Howell further stated: "I admit I voted for the project, but I, and most of us I am sure, didn't realize exactly how it would be. Let's face it, if we have made a mistake let's admit it and try to rectify it now, while the changes may only be minor ones."

Elaborating further, Howell noted that one only has to check the many tire marks on the islands to see how many people are driving over them. He also noted that buses must now stop in the line of traffic, and motorists are held up while the buses are loading because they cannot pass over the double line.

"I would like to have an open meeting on this problem, and give those who are opposed to the project the opportunity to be heard. I would like to have this meeting scheduled for the first part of the Council meeting next Monday night, and would like to make a motion to have it put on the agenda," Howell concluded.

While the other three councilmen (George Hein had already left the Council Chambers) seemed reluctant to admit that a mistake had been made, they did agree they would like to hear what the people thought about the subject, and readily agreed to having it placed on the agenda.

Mayor Hubert Call commented that they might be "jumping the gun" by making changes before the street was repaved. He noted what he thought was a great difference in the upper Solano Avenue area which had already been paved. He stated he thought the project should be completed before being evaluated.

"It is unfortunate that the strike is holding up the completion. There probably will have to be some minor changes, but I feel we should see the project through to its completion first," the Mayor noted.

Councilman Richard Clark noted that the streets "are just as wide as before," and that although there may be some nighttime driving inconvenience now, when the project is completed and the low-level lighting and trees are installed "all this will change."

"Our intention was to slow down Solano Avenue drivers, not restrict them," he commented during a discussion on drivers' complaints that the projected islands impeded traffic.

Mayor Call agreed with Clark, noting that Solano Avenue was not a "freeway," and that those looking for a fast route to the freeway could take another route.

"Most of the calls I have received," the Mayor noted, "have been from people from the Berkeley/Kensington area who were complaining about being slowed down on Solano Avenue. I feel that this slow driving will enhance the safety of our children and the pedestrians on Solano Avenue."

As the result of this unexpected discussion, which took place at the end of the Council meeting, under the "Good of the city," area residents are invited to attend next week's meeting and make their feelings, concerning Solano Avenue's "new look," known to Chamber of Commerce members, the Solano Avenue Beautification Committee members and the Albany City Council.

During a suspension of the rules, Fahmie was allowed to speak and present his plans to reopen the club to the Council.

In his discussion, Fahmie noted that he was trying to make a "place for kids to go... to keep them off the streets."

His plans called for Friday and Saturday night dancing for young people, between the hours of 6:30 and 11:30 p.m., with coffee, sandwiches and soft drinks being served.

Clark noted that there was great concern among the citizens of the area concerning these "public dance hall permits," and he felt this might be getting out of hand... "beyond the kind of activity we had previously planned."

During further Council questioning, Fahmie noted that the establishment would also offer "after hours" entertainment on Saturday and Sunday mornings, from midnight until 6 a.m., still serving only coffee, soft drinks and sandwiches.

"After all, this place has been vacant for four or five months, and we have to do something. You all know the Fahmies — we have a good reputation in Albany, and have always run a nice clean place," he said.

However, Adams Streets residents, most of whom live directly behind the Interlude Club, had many objections about granting a permit to reopen the club "at anytime," according to Louis Bell, who was the first to address the Council, following Fahmie's statements.

Bell noted that nothing was stated in the application about "after hours," in fact no mention of hours the club would be in operation was made at all.

He also commented that "No one in his right mind will dance all night on soda pop. We all know the patrons will bring something with them to mix with the soft drinks. This kind of an establishment will generate too much noise in the area."

Another Adams Street resident who did not give her name, noted that she was deeply concerned as a homeowner and resident, and that there had been enough noise and trouble when the Club was only open until 2 a.m.

Adams Street resident, Richard Packer commented that while he thought the idea of giving the "kids somewhere to go" was a good one, "we all know that when a group of teenagers get together some always get too frisky, and the fights break out."

"Our policemen have better things to do than break up fights in the Interlude parking lot," he concluded.

Another homeowner noted that she and her family got little sleep until the wee hours of the morning, when the Interlude was operating before, and that patrons from the club had entered her yard, when being chased by the police, and damaged some of her property. No one from the Club would sign a complaint against the troublemakers, consequently the police had to let them go.

"I think the residents along Adams Street were relieved when the place caught fire," she noted, concluding her statements.

The application was finally denied, by a unanimous motion of the Council. However, Mr. Fahmie was advised that he should check with the City Administrator, James Turner, if he considered re-applying for the permit.

Building Down

A report submitted by James Turner, Albany City Administrator, indicates a total of 42 building permits issued last month for residential additions, commercial and residential alterations, re-roofing, etc., with a total of $38,252 involved. This is a decrease from July, 1970, when the permits totaled 60 and the money involved was $44,727.

PTAs -- Off To A Flying Start

Presidents of more than 4,800 local parent-teacher associations in California will get a head start on their year's work when they receive a packet of leadership helps from the California PTA. PTA councils, which include the associations in one or more school districts, will distribute the packets.

Included in the unit packets are new and revised National and State PTA publications, basic manuals of the organization, special project reports and other helps. Mrs. Vincent P. Andersen, Richmond, California PTA director of organization, has said that some councils and districts have planned workshops to provide instruction in the use of the materials.

One publication, titled "The Chalkboard," suggests ways a PTA can learn the needs of its school district and lists 15 studies currently being made by California PTAs. This pamphlet is published by the California PTA education department headed by Mrs. Richard Macy, Whittier.

Two pamphlets have been revised, "Pertinent Information," a billfold-size summary of statistics and projects of PTA in California, and "Improving Our Partnership," a handbook on PTA-administrator relationships.

Among items included in the packet is a list of the topics to be covered in the parent and family life education programs beginning in the September, 1971, issue of "The PTA Magazine."

The magazine annually carries a program for three different age groups, pre-school, elementary school age and adolescent, each of which is directed by authorities in the field. Some of the topics are: for parents of pre-schoolers, "Tip-offs of Personality Traits" and "Putting Parents Into the Reading Picture"; for parents of elementary school age children, "Teaching the Three R's—Assessment of '72' and "Early Drug Alerts"; and for parents of adolescents, "What School Reformers Want" and "What Chance Has the NOW Graduate."

Mrs. Doyle Hoffman, El Monte, president of the California PTA, in a letter to the unit presidents emphasizes the value of the free materials and urges sharing them "with the officers and chairmen so that they will know what is available to assist them."

The California PTA is currently offering two additional leadership training opportunities. The extension department, with Mrs. Lennart Swenson, South Pasadena, director, is making available gratis to each PTA district three special services. Seven are offered. The services include a traveling workshop and mini-

Pre-School Paradise

Registration is now being taken for pre-schoolers 3 years of age and up, for Thousand Oaks Church Pre-School Program, which will begin Monday, September 13.

Monday and Thursday sessions, which will be held from 9 a.m. until 11:30 a.m., will be 3 year olds; 4 year old children will attend classes at the same hours on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.

During the year the children will have the opportunity to enjoy arts and crafts, finger painting, stories, music, science and nature study. They will also have a chance to become familiar with such community services as the fire and police departments.

Highlights of last year's sessions were the visit to the school by a Berkeley policeman, and a tour of a fire house. Preschoolers also enjoyed cooking sessions and learned how to bake cookies, make ice cream, lemonade and bread, as well as butter and peanut butter.

Outdoor recreation is enjoyed in the large play yard.

For information about pre-school classes, please call the church office, 526-3773.

Have You Heard?

Have you heard . . . that the Albany Fire Department has adopted a new routine-use uniform of powder blue shirt and dark blue trousers, all wash and wear? (Probably shouldn't tell this, BUT . . . we hear that some wives are saying the fellows look like gas station attendants!) Anyway, the City Hall girls, not to be outdone, showed up for work the other day all outfitted in pants suits. Capt. McSheehy's only comment: "Women's lib?"

Don Dupin, who will head the 17th Annual Pet Show, which will be held at Memorial Park, Saturday, Aug. 28, at 10 a.m., notes that only children 16 years of age and under are eligible to enter their pets.

He's looking forward to the event a little anxiously . . . last year there were over 100 dogs entered, and some of them were bigger than their owners.

Lottie Moody is telling the story about little Richard McKelvey of El Cerrito, who is almost 10 years old, and quite taken with heavy duty equipment—both toy and the real thing.

He was quite upset recently, when he saw the teamster strike had idled work on Solano Avenue, and with the sincerity of the very young who have no concept of size or time, told his mother he would like to let Mayor Call borrow his pride and joy, a large dump truck which he rides, so the project could get finished.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Jones are the new owners of Winchell's Donut Shop on San Pablo Avenue. Stop by for a cup of coffee and a dunk and welcome them to our business world.

It's "Bon Voyage" for Johnnie Grisham and spouse (she's with the Albany Public Works Dept.). Yes, they are finally going to take advantage of the trip to Hawaii that their children gave them over two years ago.

They have had three post-noments due to accidents and illnesses, and for a while it looked like they wouldn't go this time, when Johnnie cut the ligaments in her foot and was hobbling around with crutch and cast. However, the cast is off and all she has to show now is an ace bandage . . . so get busy with your final packing, Johnnie, and you and Roland be sure and drop us a line and let us know how things are in the Islands, you lucky people.

Direct Bus Service Proposed For Colleges

Direct, cross-town bus service, which would cut in half travel time between Berkeley and the hilltop campus of Merritt College, has been recommended by AC Transit's project development committee.

The new Line 37-Warren Blvd. express would expand service through the Warren Blvd. corridor, serving the College of Holy Names, as well as Merritt. Limited service also would be provided between Montclair and Berkeley.

The committee of directors has recommended operating Line 37 on weekdays between University and San Pablo Aves. in Berkeley and the college campus. Schedules would be planned for 8 a.m., 9 a.m. and 10 a.m. classes, with return trips leaving the campus hourly from 12 noon to 3 p.m.

Travel time from Berkeley to the college would total approximately 30 minutes, as compared to a present running time of 56 minutes on Line 15M-Grove St. Line 15M service and Line 54-35th Ave. service would be continued, giving access to the campus from other areas.

The new line would travel via University, Shattuck Ave., Ashby Ave., Tunnel Rd., Warren Blvd. to Redwood Rd. and the college.

All passenger stops would be observed in the Berkeley area, with additional stops in Montclair village and on Redwood Rd. to serve the College of Holy Names.

Buses returning from Merritt College in the morning and en route to Merritt in the afternoon would be able to carry Montclair residents, giving them access to downtown Berkeley and to University of California.

In other action, the committee recommended the minor rerouting of Line 43-Berkeley-Albany service, due to the closing of Virginia St. and Acton St. to through traffic. The line would travel from Sacramento St. to Cedar St. to Cornell St. and balance of regular route.

Measles Cases Up In County

An intensive new drive to immunize all Alameda County children against measles was launched Monday, by the County Health Care Agency.

Agency doctors for the first time began using a new combined vaccine which is effective against both measles and rubella (German measles).

Action to initiate the measles drive was taken because of the rapid recent increase in the disease. More than 100 measles cases were reported in the county during the first six months of this year—compared to 26 during the same period of 1970, Dr. James C. Malcolm, county health officer, said.

Previously there had been a general decline in measles cases throughout the county, from 3,391 cases in 1959 to only 43 last year.

Dr. Malcolm said a similar four-fold increase in measles has been reported throughout the state during the past year, and that nationally the number of cases has doubled.

All children are required by law to be vaccinated against measles and polio prior to entering school this fall, Dr. Malcolm said.

Fifty Year Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond D. Querio of Talbot Avenue, Albany, were recently honored at a dinner attended by approximately 140 relatives and close friends. The occasion was the celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Minnie and Raymond ("Dom") were married in Roslyn, Washington in 1921 and came to the Bay Area on their honeymoon. They liked the country so well that they moved to Berkeley the following year, moving to Albany in 1941.

The occasion also marked the 39th wedding anniversary of Jennie and Gene Latapie, Mrs. Querio's sister and brother-in-law, and since all 12 attendants at their wedding were present at this celebration, the Anniversary Waltz was played and danced by all bridal party members. Also present was the Rt. Rev. John T. Killecoyne, the priest who officiated at the Latapie's wedding in St. Joseph's Church in Berkeley.

On the following day, some 65 relatives enjoyed a buffet dinner at the home of the Eugene Latapies on Creston Road in Berkeley. A week of merriment followed, as many visitors were on vacation and were royally entertained by the Querios, Latapies, and Valerios, with side trips to the Napa Wine Country and Reno.

The Albany Police Department reports that Officer John Clark is recovering from an operation at Albany Hospital and Police-woman Clerk Betty Nehls is also in Albany Hospital recovering from extensive surgery which she had yesterday.

Ted Hutt, who is with the Albany Public Works Dept., was taken to Richmond Hospital last weekend, suffering from a possible re-occurrence of emphysema. All would welcome get-well cards from their friends.

Yvonne's fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugenio Vanni of San Bruno, recently completed his tour of duty with the U.S. Army in Germany. He is employed in San Mateo.

The couple plan a February wedding to take place at St. Ambrose Church in Berkeley.

Dear Mrs. Wilson

My letter dated August 16, 1971 to Leong and McDougall concerning the Solano Avenue Beautification, Albany, California, is an Open Letter. I want you to publish that letter as my professional, personal views. Being a designer, I certainly would not allow such a poor design solution go out of our office.

Sentlemen:
I know that you are the design consultants for the current Solano Street Development, Albany, and as you well know, I can only judge an office and its work by what it produces and in my judgement, the design results you achieved there are below my reasonable design standards, visually unpleasant and more pointedly unfair to the public.

When I say below design standards, I mean you did not understand nor complement the scale of the street space. Everything looks out of scale—simply too small. The visual impact of the walkways and raised concrete planters are uninviting and even actually physically restrictive barriers to the mass of shoppers that are needed to support the commercial shops. Further, besides being unattractive, the raised concrete planters are useless as seat street furniture.

As you have designed, the street space cannot look and feel alive and green. This I feel is mandatory to induce pleasant, comfortable shopping and spending.

Beauty is complete organization. Beauty is unity. Organization and unity you have not achieved in your design efforts.

The public is paying the development bill and they are not getting the best job possible for the monies being spent. We both know that in this type of development, a high number of funds

Help For Asthmatic Children

Following a successful pilot program held last spring in El Cerrito, a second breathing improvement class for asthmatic children has been scheduled by the TB & Respiratory Disease Association of Contra Costa beginning Sept. 13, and weekly thereafter, through Nov. 3.

The classes will be held at the El Cerrito Community Center, 7007 Mooser Lane, each Monday, from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m.

As the class is limited to 12 and admittance is on physician referral, advance registration will be necessary. Physician referral slips may be obtained by contacting the Association's office, 105 Astrid Drive, Pleasant Hill 94523. The $20 fee may be waived in cases of family need.

The weekly course is to instruct youngsters in breathing exercises and techniques, which help prevent asthma attacks. Instruction is given in breathing exercises, posture, postural drainage, and relaxation. In addition, youngsters play games and compete in light sports, all of which are geared to improving the asthmatic child's endurance and tolerance for general activities.

have to be spent; so, budget is not the critical criteria. Directly, I am talking about design ability and pure creativity.

I justifiably know your solution is a poor example of the design process. As a consultant, you are required to direct and provide your client with the best solution. Again, you did not do this and everyone suffers; you, other designers and most sadly, the people who use the street space by either choice or non-choice.

Cordially,

Reunion Trip

Helen Lindberg recently returned home from a trip to Duluth, Minnesota, where she was one of approximately 8,000 former graduates of Duluth Central High School attending class reunions there.

The event was held in conjunction with the termination of the old high school, which was built in 1902, and the construction of a new, modern facility to be opened next month.

Jay Lurye, a 1941 Central High grad, and producer of shows and conventions throughout the world, was chairman for the event, which was highlighted by the appearances of Hollywood film stars Caesar Romero and Agnes Moorehead, who performed and narrated the history of the school.

Dance bands playing music of the various eras of the past entertained until the wee hours of the morning.

Former graduates attended from all 50 states, plus Australia, Pakistan and Saudi Arabia. Mrs. Lindberg received an award for traveling the farthest distance to attend her own class reunion.

Albany Visitor

Current visitor to the City of Albany is Miss Ann Toalson of San Antonio, Texas, who is visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce W. Barrows.

Miss Toalson has been entertained by a round of parties and trips, hosted by Bruce's mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Vierra, and by his two grandmothers, Mrs. William Parrott and Mrs. Max Etingoff.

Mrs. Vierra reports that the visiting Texas girl, who had never been out of Texas before, is thoroughly impressed by all the bridges in the San Francisco-Alameda-Contra Costa area, and by the Golden Gate Bridge especially.

She will be ending her two-week visit next Sunday, but is planning on returning to Albany, which she says she "just loves," as soon as possible—and catch up on any spots she might have missed during this visit.

Albany Bowl Highlights

With the ending of the Summer Leagues, everyone is eagerly looking forward to the beginning of September, for the start of the Winter Schedule.

We have had a couple of sweepers with some exciting results, but most of them are this coming week... so be sure to participate and win some money.

In the 505 Mixed Trio some real nice games and series were recorded, such as Ed Burcher 249, Bill Taggart 234-203, Gary Resser 228-221-213-210, Bill Beltz 227-221, John Taylor 213-201, Joe Zupo 209, Dale Vad 209, Arden Weathers 209, Karl Krusi 205, Rich Blume 204, Lonnie, Algaier 203, and Jerry Laurella 200.

On the distaff side were Theresa Wisenor with 200 and Bobbie Bayes 201.

Men's Handicap League: Mike Martinez 208-566; Pat Jones 220-516; Rolly Naish 234, 206-604; Craig Lacy 208-587; Geo. Davenport 202-537. Esquire Barber Shop is leading the League with 26 points, narrowly edging out the Gin & Tonics with 25 points. In the Jr. Classic Doubles, young Tommy Hill had a swingin' 256 with 724 series; while his partner, Dave Rubin, shot a respectable 205-742 series. Chet Hill, Tom's older brother also came thru with a nice 208 game. Chet had previously rolled a nice 771 series also. Tom and Dave are leading the League with 140 equalization points. Next to them are Gary Larks and Caleb Schultz, followed by Chet Hill and Bob Jensen.

Morrison Trophy Fun 4's is becoming very tight. With only three more weeks to go C.C. & Co. is leading with 26 wins, with Henry's Printing next with 25 points, along with 1000 Oaks Pharmacy also with 25, followed by The Office with 24 and Volney Morrison's team with 23.

Gloria Mohrbacher is high for the ladies, with 236-626, while Rich St. Germain is high for the men with 256, with Ralph Willis taking high series with 684. Frank Spicer had a 189 triplicate, while Ted Curry rolled his first 202 ever.

With our Summer Doubles over once more, now is the time for all high average bowlers to get into some serious stuff—like our 950 Classic Singles, which will be bowled here every Friday night. This will be a league well-worth coming down to watch and cheer for.

Any ladies interested in daytime leagues, please call George Schaber or Jess Balcombe. We have handicap, Blue Chip and scratch leagues due to start the last week in September. Come on and get into the swing of bowling—ladies, it helps you keep fit!

Protect Children From Fire's Danger

How would you feel if fire killed your small child while he was alone, unable to save himself?

Each year, parents of about 700 children go through the agonizing experience of losing a little boy or girl just this way. Quoting estimates prepared by the National Fire Protection Association, the Albany Fire Department points out that 17.5 percent of the 12,200 persons killed by fire in the United States each year are under the age of five—about one child out of every three who die in a fire is alone at the time of the tragedy.

Just as grim are statistics showing the much larger number of children who suffer painful, often permanent injury from fire.

"Never leave small children alone," is the concise advice to all parents and everyone else responsible at any time for the well-being of youngsters. "If you must leave the house for even a few minutes, take the children with you, or place them in the care of a competent, reliable person while you are away."

Here are some suggestions for the protection of children from fire, at home and play:

1. Make sure babysitters have specific instructions in case of fire. These include orders to get the children out of the house the instant smoke or gas is noticed, the location of at least two escape routes from every room, and how to get in touch with the fire department, parents, doctor and police.

2. Keep young children—age 2 and under—in constant sight and mind.

3. Teach older children how to use and respect fire. They learn best by the good example set by their parents.

4. Keep your home free of fire hazards through regular check-ups. Don't hesitate to ask the fire department to help in this.

5. Train children of all ages to get out of the house to safety in case of fire. Work out at least two escape routes from each room, and be sure the youngsters know these routes by heart.

GREATER AUTO SAFETY

The National Highway Safety Bureau has issued a requirement that cars built after July 31, 1972 be equipped with improved front and rear bumpers, to protect vital auto parts in collisions up to five miles per hour.

Equipment which must remain intact in test crashes include fuel, exhaust and cooling systems, lights, hood and trunk.

The standard also requires that bumpers be designed to ensure greater height uniformity, to eliminate overriding and interlocking.

LAW IN ACTION

UNFAIR CONTRACT

Never sign a contract unless you have read what it says and know what it means. If you can't make it out, take it to a lawyer. He may save you grief later.

Take the case of Gus Gasman. He leased a gas station from an oil company. With the contract already printed Gus could either take it or leave it. Although the lease had some rather unusual terms Gus had no choice but to sign it.

One term said that Gus must "hold the company harmless" for any liability it incurred for anything it did on the station grounds. This would have made Gus responsible for anything the company might do while Gus ran the station.

One day an oil company man came out to fix a gas pump, and he was showing Gus how to adjust it. Instead, the repairman accidentally sprayed Gus with gas. It ignited, and burned Gus and his helper. They sued the employee and the oil company for damages and won.

Next thing Gus knew, the oil company sued him under his lease saying that he had clearly agreed to hold the company harmless for anything that might go wrong at the station. The court, however, refused to enforce that clause as "contrary to public policy." Besides, the clause was never brought to Gus' attention. He could not know of its far reaching implications.

When there is a great disparity in bargaining power between two contracting parties as was the case here, courts carefully check any terms which the stronger party demands.

Take another case. Bessie rushed her child to the community hospital where she would enter as a non-paying patient. Before the hospital would let her child in, she had to sign an agreement to excuse the hospital for any negligence by any of its staff. Later one of its nurses made a mistake which injured Bessie's child. When Bessie sued the hospital said that the agreement barred her claim.

The court ruled the contract was "against public policy." The hospital's strong position made it grossly unfair since Bessie could do nothing else but sign in such an emergency.

The hospital could not exempt itself from its own negligence in this way, the court said.

Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws.

Ping-Pong Tourney

Ping-pong is the big event at James Kenney Park during the week of August 23-27. Two age groups will be competing for first prizes donated by the U.C. Theatre, Shakey's Pizza and McDonald's of Berkeley.

Children aged 14 years and under are eligible for the first division and teens age 15 to 20 years will compete in the second division. The final contest in the single elimination tournament is Friday, August 27, 3 p.m.

For further information, please call the Center at 524-0684. James Kenney Park is located at 8th and Delaware Streets in Berkeley.

This program is sponsored by the Berkeley Recreation and Parks Department.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

What underlies today's interest in divine healing?

This is a question to be explored at Christian Science church services Sunday in a Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus."

Services at Albany Christian Science Society, 1358 Marin Ave., begin at 11 a.m. Everyone is welcome.

Albany Library Art Display

Paintings by Stanley Wenocur will be on display at the Albany Library, 1216 Solano Avenue, Albany, during the month of September.

Wenocur received his BA from Harvard University, MSSA from Case-Western Reserve University, and is currently a doctoral student at the School of Social Welfare, University of California, Berkeley. He has been employed in social work practice and administration for the past 10 years.

He has been painting actively since 1966, and is largely self-taught. He is a member of Berkeley Arts and Crafts Co-op and a former member of the Cambridge Art Association. He has exhibited with Intrepid Galleries in Boston, and was awarded the Arthur D. Little Award, the Cambridge Art Association 1970 Spring Show Honorable Mention, and the Cambridge Art Association 1969 Spring Show.

Wenocur states: "I have moved from representational pictures to primarily abstract painting because it allows me to become more involved in an internal process of self exploration and expression. I enjoy the process of covering and uncovering in my painting, both as an intellectual and an emotional process. Painting involves constant decision making and an element of risk which is hopefully conveyed in my work through color and form and motion. Edges are important to me in defining line and deepening space through light in a painting."

Consumer Complaints

Consumers' complaints are pouring into the office of the Attorney General of California at the rate of 12,000 a year, "and they're increasing fast," says John C. Porter, Deputy Attorney General in the San Francisco office.

Porter noted that these complaints "give us leads for needed state legislation," on such things as charter flights, phony contests and cooling-off periods on sales contracts.

The Attorney General's office is also asking the California legislature to require the Dept. of Motor Vehicles to get a record of a car's mileage at the time of each sale of the vehicle, and to stop deficiency judgments, which often profit the finance firm when a car is repossessed and sold because the buyer couldn't keep up the payments.

"We're also trying to eliminate the holder in due-course abuses, so that a buyer of an automobile, for example, would have the same and original rights and guarantees enforceable against the auto dealer, even though the installment sale contract has been sold to a bank or other finance firm," Porter emphasized. His office is also encouraging legislation to give the consumer redress against the holder of the contract, i.e. the lending institution.

Freeze Delays Mail Increase

Postmaster General Winston Blount said today that the Postal Service in compliance with President Nixon's order freezing wages and prices, will not implement an increase in third-class mail rates which had been announced for September 15.

The increase in rates for third-class mail, which includes advertising circulars and catalogs, will be put into effect after the wage price freeze has been lifted.

Mr. Blount said the Postal Service is in the process of receiving a notice in the Federal Register which stated on August 15 the Service's intention to raise third-class rates.

That increase had been expected to bring third-class rates to the limit of authority for temporary rate-making under the Postal Reorganization Act, 1969.

Originally, the Postal Service sought to phase-in the proposed permanent rate over a five-year period, but a lack of Congressional appropriations for the phase-in made this impossible.
